

Recessed Light Standard

As of July 26, 2011

Description/Requirements:

1. A single recessed light can only be installed on HGC models with enclosed front entries. The specific models are: Alpha, Delta, Sigma, and Phi.
2. Lights with various options or accessories, including motion detection, can be purchased from Home Depot and other suppliers to closely match the example below.
3. Baffle and Trim to be black, bronze, silver, or trim painted to match the DRB approved entry siding color.
4. Light fixture opening not to exceed 6 inches in diameter.
5. Light fixture to be installed in the center of the enclosed front entry ceiling.
6. Illumination level not to exceed 65 watts.
7. Only one light be installed per home

Suggested Suppliers: Lights can be purchased from Home Depot (www.homedepot.com), Lowe's (www.lowes.com), Dulles Electric (www.dulleselectric.com), Dominion Electric (www.dominionelectric.com) or other retail and online suppliers to closely match the example below.

Halo 6 in. 65-Watt Recessed Baffle Trim